

BETHESDA CHILD OF THE MONTH

April 2009

Neo

Hi! I'm Neo Maema. I'm 14 years old and in grade 9 at Prestige College, a school near Bethesda. You last read about me in 2005 when I was just 10 years old. A lot has changed since then! Let me tell you a little more about myself now.

I really enjoy school! I am good at Social Science and enjoy learning all I can in that subject. I'm also an excellent reader! Last year, my teacher's had to make special library rules for me, because three books a week wasn't enough to keep me busy!

At home I enjoy playing, talking with my siblings. I can be a peacemaker for my siblings at times. I also enjoy helping my mom. I can prepare breakfast for the family and help prepare other meals as well. I am a hard worker, but sometimes can do things too slowly. I'm working on that with my parent's help.

My parents describe my personality as joyful and loving. They see me often acting as comforter to my brothers and sisters as well. I am very compassionate and love to help others.

I am working hard to overcome a habit of arguing with my brother, Shane. I also want to work hard to be exemplary in everything I do this year. I skipped a grade in school (going from grade seven to grade nine) and want to do my best in all my subjects. I also want to love God and man as the Bible says I should. Please pray for me to grow in these areas!

* Pray for Neo *

- That she will complete her school work with excellence and pass this school year.
 - That she will be exemplary in all she does.
 - That she will love God and man.
